Politicians in Consultation.

Judge J. H. Polsgrove, of Frankfort, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Commonwealth's Attorney from this district, was in the city Tuesday in consultation with Mr. N. C. Fisher, who is a candidate for the same office. It is understood that Judge Polsgrove was here to try to get Mr. Fisher to withdraw, so that the opposition in the district to Col. R. B. Franklin could be concentrated on one candidate. Mr. Fisher, it is said, answered his argument by a counter-proposition, proposing to the Judge that he get out of the way and let him take Col. Franklin's scalp. Mr. Fisher claimed that if the race is between Mr. Franklin and Judge Polsgrove that the former would carry Bourbon by a majority that Polsgrove could not overcome in Franklin county. Mr. Fisher also claimed that by him carrying Bourbon by a large majority, and getting a good vote in Scott and Woodford, he is in a position to clean up with both of the contending candidates.

Bourbon county is entitled to this office and it is up to the voters of this county whether or not they will take this opportunity to secure it. If the Democrats of this county will get together and give Mr. Fisher their solid support, as other counties do their candidates, then Bourbon can get what is rightly and justly due in the way of district offices. Let these factional fights end and support county men and we will then become a power in district politics.

Grand Opening.

We announce our grand fall opening Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1, 2 and 3. HARRY SIMON.

A Word of Warning.

The depredations committed the past week by the number of small boys that hang around the opera house each evening have become unbearable and Manager Jackson has taken steps to prevent further destruction of the property in his care. One night this week some of the boys climbed to the balcony in front of the house and forced an entrance through one of the large front windows by prizing it open with a hatchet, breaking the glass, took possession and for a time had things going their own way. Mr. Jackson will have warrants issued for three boys known to be parties to this outrageous act and may prosecute them in an effort to put a stop to this vandalism.

Foot Ball.

The Paris Athletic Club football team has been organized and the prospects are very bright for having a team that will be able to hold their own with all of the small college teams and athletic clubs of this section. Harry Holt has been elected manager. Neely Ranson captain of the first team and Harry Brent Fithian captain of the second team. A full equipment of suits, etc., have been ordered and hard practice will begin early next week. Any player who may desire to try for the team is requested to hand his name to Captain Ranson at once.

Saloon License Revoked.

When Mayor James M. O'Brien entered upon the duties of his office he stated that public policy demanded that the law be observed and that as long as he was Mayor of the city it would be rigidly enforced without fear or favor, and well has he kept his word. He then, right at the beginning of his term put the "lid" on good and tight. He informed the saloon men then that an arrest and conviction in the police court for violation of the Sunday law meant revocation of license.

On Sunday last, Officer Ben Bishop caught Coughlin Bros., who run a saloon on the corner of Tenth and Pleasant streets, violating the Sunday closing law and arrested them. They were tried before Judge E. T. Hinton Monday morning and fined $20 and costs.

Mayor O'Brien at once called a special meeting of the City Council for Tuesday night and laid the matter before them, asking them to revoke the saloon license of Coughlin Bros. Councilman T. F. Brannon, agent for the Lion Brewing Co., moved that said license be revoked and he carried without a dissenting vote.

Mayor O'Brien further stated that all saloons in Paris, if their proprietors expect to remain in business must observe the Sunday closing law, both in spirit and letter. The Mayor said it was unjust for some of the saloons to observe the law and others to violate it, and that in no sense could it be permitted or tolerated.

Final Action by Burley Board.

The District Board of the Burley Tobacco Society convened at Winchester Wednesday at 2 o'clock. The roll call, reading of the minutes of the last meeting and a report from the counties concerning the prizing and sampling of the 1907 crop occupied most of the afternoon.

Many counties are through or nearly through with the prizing, while others have been greatly hindered by the dry weather.

At the evening session each member of the District Board was instructed to file with the secretary of the Winchester office the claim made by his county for its share of the $3 buyers' fee for the financing of the 1906 crop. As soon as these claims are passed up they will be paid. The remainder of the $3 buyers' fee will be used as an expense fund for salaries and office expenses.

At the session at night each member of the District Board was instructed to file a statement of his expenses as director. After the accounts are properly audited the secretary will pay them.

This is the first step taken to reimburse any member of the district organization for his actual traveling and other expenses. There was no other business before the meeting and the board adjourned.

Bourbon's Biggest Concern.

We find the following in the Nicholas Advocate concerning one of Bourbon county's strongest business organizations:

"The Hurst Home Insurance Company, located at Millersburg, Ky., and doing business in ten counties in the Blue Grass belt with $2,750,000 insurance in force, had two losses last week in this county and one in Harrison county, and the smoke had hardly cleared away, when F. F. Hurst, Secretary and Manager was on the ground ready to make adjustments and the losses were all settled dollar for dollar."

"The losses were Z. W. Lee on barn in Harrison county, loss $2,500, insurance $800; D. W. Morris, house and contents at Carlisle, loss $2,000, insurance $1,000; J. O. Shroats, house and contents at Buzzard Roost, lost $1,500, insurance $700. The losses all occurred on Tuesday and were all paid Thursday morning."

"This company by shrewd management by its officers and board of directors, is now on its feet in great shape. It looks like they will reach the three million mark before Jan. 11, 09, and then there will be no turn back, for 'nothing succeeds like success.' The Manager, Mr. Hurst, is a good man for his place, for he never tires in his work for his company or in singing its advantages over all others."

DEATHS.

—Mr John D. Penn died Tuesday afternoon at the Good Samaritan Hospital, Lexington, aged 69 years, after a long illness. Mr. Penn was one of the bravest of Confederate soldiers and was popular with his old comrades. He was a member of Company C, Ninth Kentucky Cavalry, commanded by the late Col. W. C. P. Breckinridge, and together with his beloved commander surrendered and was paroled at Washington, Ga., May 10, 1865. His company was commanded by Capt. Ed. Taylor.

Mr. Penn was wounded in a skirmish which Colonel Breckinridge led against the forces of General George Morgan near Cumberland Gap in 1862. From the effects of the wound Mr. Penn never entirely recovered.

Mr. Penn like all of his brothers had lived the life of a bachelor. He was a brother of Joseph D. Penn, who died in Rochester, Minn., from the effects of a surgical operation, the body being interred in the Paris Cemetery. Mr. Penn is survived by one brother Mr. William Penn, and one sister Mrs. Joe Redmon. The body was brought Wednesday afternoon to the home of his brother-in-law, Mr. Lloyd Ashurst on the Bethlehem pike, where the funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Carey E. Morgan officiated. The interment was in the Paris cemetery.

The pall-bearers were his old comrades, viz: Active—Chas. H. Meng, Capt. Ed. Taylor, A. T. Forsyth, John W. Boulden, Alex. Macklin, Jos. E. Hedges. Honorary—C. W. Rogers, Russell Mann, W. G. Holt, John W. Skillman, Jos. A. Miller, John E. Abrahams.

—Miss Ruth Howe, daughter of Dr. W. D. Howe, one of the best known physicians of Nicholas county, died of typhoid fever after an illness of three weeks. She was nineteen years old.

—The Carlisle Advocate says: "Mr. Jim Will Marshall, who has been sick for some time with typhoid fever, died Monday morning. He died very happy."

"Not often you hear of them dying this way."

Settles With His Widow.

The widow of Chas. Johnson, the negro employee of the L. & N. railroad, who lost his life while asleep in a pile of coal which was being lifted into the coal chute by a steam shovel, in which Johnson was carried up with the coal, has settled in full with railroad company, the latter paying Johnson's funeral expenses and giving the widow a check for $50. The coroner's verdict exonerated the railroad company from any negligence in the matter.

Will Fire on Auto Cranks.

There have been so many runaway teams and so much damage recently caused by automobile racing on turnpikes entering Owingsville that farmers have become desperate and declare that as they have no other recourse, these machines shall be excluded from the use of turnpikes in Bath county, if not by law, then by the use of shotguns. The road between Owingsville and Mt. Sterling is guarded day and night by men with guns. The feeling is very strong.
